

I received my license in 1985 and was quite proud of my accomplishment. I feel that anyone wishing to become an amateur radio operator should be willing to at least get the 5 words per minute. I am still a tech plus but enjoy and participate a good deal in the Amateur Radio Community